

CUT IT SHORT.

The man who makes a speech at today's Convention over ten minutes long should be suppressed by general consent of all present. The last meeting of the Nevada Silver Association was characterized by a great deal of wind and very little business. The speakers came there mostly to parade their jaws, and they succeeded in doing so. That is about all, however, they succeeded in doing.

There is no need of anyone getting up today and holding the floor for two hours, telling how silver was demonetized, about the number of grains needed in a dollar, or how the mines would do if the "ruinous discount" were off.

The members of the Convention know all about that, and the people are about as well posted as the members of the Convention. The Convention does not meet to have its members tell each other about the present state of affairs, but how the present state of affairs can be changed to raise the price of silver. There will not be over two speakers in the Convention who would interest the audience by talking an hour.

There seems to be a disposition to shout "Free and unlimited coinage" to the exclusion of everything else. This is a mistake. We want that very badly, but a bill that would raise silver to 1.15 would be a vast improvement on what we now have.

If the members of the Convention once get into a talking strain they will all talk each other to death and do nothing. All the Convention has to do is to express itself by resolutions, and let these resolutions voice the general sentiments of the State. Let there be as little expression of partisanship as possible and no attempt to take underhanded political advantage and the Convention will be a success.

A GOOD SILVER BILL.

Anyone looking for a good silver bill will find one in the following introduced by Senator Plumb of Kansas.

Section 1. That from and after the date of this Act the unit of value in the United States shall be the dollar and the same may be coined of 412 1-2 grains of standard silver or 25.8 grains of standard gold, and said coins shall be equally legal tender for all sums whatever.

Sec. 2. Any owner of silver bullion may deposit the same at any mint of the United States to be formed into standard silver dollars or bars for his benefit and without charge; but it shall be lawful to refuse any deposit of less value than one hundred dollars, or any bullion so base as to be unsuitable for the operations of the Mint.

Sec. 3. In any deposit of silver in which gold is combined no allowance shall be made to the depositor for the gold, unless the two metals are in such proportion that they may be separated advantageously; but gold bullion contained in silver deposits and separate therefrom shall be paid for in gold or silver coin as from time to time may be appointed by the director of the Mint.

Sec. 4. That so much of the Act of Feb. 28th, 1878, as directs or authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase silver bullion for coinage into standard dollars, and all other Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

A foot note attached to the bill says: This will not interfere with the present privilege of obtaining silver certificates for silver dollars deposited in the Treasury so that the convenient floating of silver will be continued as now if the bill becomes a law.

OUR business is now so great that if located in New York, Chicago or Philadelphia, and allowing for the difference in population, it would be from three to five times larger than any of the largest stores in those cities. This is a wonderful record, approached by no other store on the Coast and probably by none in the country. It shows on its face that the business must and does present advantages of a most unusual sort.

AS TO SUPERIORITY OF OUR GOODS.—A glance through the pages of our Catalogue will show that we are handling the goods of the best manufacturers in this country and Europe. For many of these makers we are agents. It pays the leading manufacturers to give us the preference because we have the largest outlet for their goods on the Coast. We have many buyers, and get novelties and new fashions as fast as they appear in the markets of the world.

AS TO LOW PRICES.—The size of our trade is proof of the leading position we hold on this point. It is a sort of public verdict. If our goods were not better and prices lower than those of other dealers, we should not have long the largest general retail trade on the Coast. People look to us for low prices; and we cannot afford to disappoint them.

FILLING MAIL ORDERS.—We make the filling of Mail Orders a Science, and have the SPECIAL experience and SPECIAL people necessary for the satisfactory carrying on of this SPECIAL business.

THE EVER-PRESENT QUESTION.—"How can we better serve our customers?" is an ever-present question with us. It keeps us constantly busy studying, devising, experimenting. It allows of no standstill. Month by month, year by year, the business is becoming more and more perfect. We take great pride in having all its countless transactions run smoothly and satisfactorily.
